LAST DAY IN INDIANA

PATRIOTIC GENERALS WIND UP GREAT SERIES OF MEETINGS.

Greeted at Rushville by a Wildly Cheering Crowd that Was Estimated at Nearly 12,000.

THE SHELBYVILLE OVATION

CALLED FORTH SOME REMINIS-CENCES FROM GEN. SICKLES.

Receptions at Columbus, Seymour, Scottsburg and Jeffersonville-Throng at Louisville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 15 .- Rushville to-day witnessed her greatest political demonstration of three campaigns. It was an old-fashioned Republican rally and love feast, with delegations in attendance from streets was estimated at 12,000. Fully 5,000 were assembled alongside the Panhandle tracks near the C., H. & D. tracks, just before the arrival of the trains from Richmond bearing Generals Alger, Sickles and Howard and Corporal Tanner. The crowd was restless, and ex-Governor Cumback, of Greensburg, after many requests, came forward and made an entertaining talk that kept the people in good humor during their wait. There was an immense parade, with four brass bands, 250 veterans, 100 first voters, the Tippecanoe Club and the New Castle Drum Corps. The train pulled in at 10 o'clock, and, as it neared the stopping place, the united bands struck up "Marching through Georgia." The speakers were introduced by Col. E. H. Wolfe. General Alger was the first speaker. He spoke briefly and was roundly applauded. The venerable General Sickles followed and received a regular ovation as he outlined the principles of his old 5,000 people were in town. At 1:30 a large soldier friends who opposed the Anarchist portion of these assembled in the court yard, and, after some music by bands and Bryan. He declared the only thing Bryan accomplished in Congress was to secure an appropriation for an elevator in the postoffice at Lincoln, Neb. "Bryan is a tramp," said the speaker, "and his followers are tramps." General Sickles said this was hearty cheer. For more than an hour he Tanner followed in a warm address. Genfanner followed in a warm address. General Howard called for rounds of cheers for the flag, McKinley, Mount and Johnson, which were given. Comrade Stewart, of Pennsylvania, closed the speechmaking. after which the train departed for Sheiby

This afternoon Hon. Frank B. Posey, of Evansville, and General A. B. Campbell, late of Los Angeles, Cal., addressed an audience of 4,000 at the Riverside Park race track. At night Judge U. Z. Wiley ldressed a big crowd at the City Opera

The Generals' Train Greeted by Crowd of 6,000.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Oct. 15 .- To-day was on of the biggest rally days ever held in the county The early morning trains brought a band and George H. Thomas Post, G. A. R., of Greens burg, besides a large number of citizens. Greenfield and Columbus sent delegations and every township in Shelby county was represented. At 10 o'clock a monster parade was formed and at the speaking there were fully 6,000 people to meet General Alger and his company of Union generals, whose train arrived at 11:20 o'clock. Gen. Alger made the first speech, talking briefly, after which General Sickles made more extended re-

"As an old Democrat, I am touched by the circumstances here. I am speaking under the shadyw of the home of my personal friend and political associate, the late Thomas A. Hendricke. (The platform was placed at the foot of the hill leading to the homestead of Hendricke.) He was the type of a Democrat I was taught from my boyhood to respect and admire—a lawyer of the highest order of ability, who was listened to with respect and deference by all the highest courts of law; a statesman of large responsibility, trusted and honored by his constituency, and with an enviable record in both houses of Congress. When I think of the Republican party I am reminded of a gallant soldier. When the Republicans choose a soldier as their standard bearer fortune smiles upon them. Hitherto I have always adhered to my party, but I know in my conscience you are right and "As an old Democrat, I am touched by the but I know in my conscience you are right and I am against Bryan because I know he is wrong."

After General Sickles, Comrade Marden, of Massachusetts, spoke for a few minutes. The ladies presented yellow roses to all the war heroes and Corporal Tanner, in a few words, thanked them for the courtesy. With boom of cannon the train pulled out for Columbus, while Capt. John K. Gowdy and the old soldiers joined in singing "Marching through Georgia."

In the afternoon General John Coburn spoke at the elevator to about 1,400 people. Ex-Governor Will Cumback followed, both gentlemen occupying over two hours.

Gen. Sickles Tells Why He Is Supporting Mr. McKinley.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Oct. 15 .- The Republicans held their second big rally here today, and it is considered by the oldest citizens that the meeting was one of the largest, most enthusiastic and successful in many years. It the morning there was a parade nearly two miles long of veterans and workingmen. The Veterans' McKinley Club, the regular McKinley Club, the Remy Club of this city and others from adjoining towns took part. At 12:30 the "generals" arrived. Each made short speeches from the open car in the railroad square to a huge crowd amid the wildest demonstrations of applause. General demonstrations of applause. General Sickles, who was the last speaker, in clos-ing said: "I admire General, Palmer, who is an honorable and patriotic man, but he was not put up soon enough. I had to make up my mind in an hour. I could not wait. No party owns me. I looked around and saw a soldier on the Republican ticket, and he is good enough for me." The afternoon speakers were Congressman Watson, Hon. J. W. O'Hara, of Peru, and Judge Kenworthy, of Iowa. Another procession paraded this evening and the City Hall was crowded to hear Hon. John L. Griffiths, of Indianapolis, who delivered what is pronounced by all as the ablest and most eloquent speech of the campaign

AT SEYMOUR.

All Except Corporal Tanner Spoke to the Assembled Throng.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Oct. 15 .- The special train bearing the patriotic generals of the late war was greeted in this city by the booming of cannon and the blowing of steam whistles. The day was a great one for the Republicans of Jackson county, and the arrival of the train there was a parade of old soldiers, and many were seen in the in a skiff, and overtaking a grocery deparade who formerly voted with the Democratic party. They marched over the principal streets to the Pennsylvania sta-tion, where a car had been decorated which was to be occupied by the speakers of the day. Mr. James E. Blythe, of Iowa, addressed the large audience until the arrival of the soldiers' train. Upon the arrival of the train it was impossible for the speakers to get to the decorated car on account of the immense crowd, and the speakers were compelled to speak from the artillery car in the rear of the special. Alger, Stewart, Sickles, Howard and Marden all spoke en-couraging words to the crowd for fifty mincouraging words to the crowd for fifty minutes, when there were loud calls for Corporal Tanner, but the Corporal was not feeling well and did not make his appearance. After the speaking the crowd moved to the city park, where Lucius B. Swift spoke. To-night Robert A. Brown addressed a large crowd at the Grand Opera House,

AT SCOTTSBURG. Speeches by Alger, Tanner, Howard and Stewart to a Big Crowd. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SCOTTSBURG, Ind., Oct. 15 .- Gen. R. A. Alger and party arrived here at 3:10 o'clock this afternoon. Salutes were fired by the Indianapolis gur squad as the train entered the town. Fully five thousand people had assembled at the station to see and hear the oil veterais. John K. Gowdy introduced General Alger, who spoke briefly He took occasion to brand as an untruth the statement of a local paper that he had recently reduced the wages of his men. Corporal Tanner was next introduced and spoke about fifteen minutes. He began by asking the soldiers in the crowd who were going to vote for McKinley to hold up their hands and the response was satisfactory. Then he asked the soldlers who were going to vote for Bryan to do likewise, and several hands went up. Among the lot was at least one who is some years under forty. Mr. Tanner told the old veterans it was their right to vote for whom they pleased. and that it was nobody eise's that he intended to vote for McKinley, and that he could not see Why soldiers who wore the blue, and who had been physically disabled while battling to save his country's flag could vote for man who, in making nearly two hundred speeches had failed to mention the old vet-erans as they deserve; a man upon a platform of principles which, if adopted, the cutting in two of the pension of every soldler and every soldler's widow. General T. J. Stewart, of Pennsylvania, was next feast, with delegations in attendance from introduced and spoke for a few minutes, six counties. At noon the crowd on the General O. O. Howard next spoke until the bugler, Lem Wiley, announced the time for departure of the train. Captain Gowdy asked the crowd to join in the chorus of "Marching through Georgia," and while song was being sung the train started amid the wildest enthusiasm A reception committee composed of comrades John T. Wiley, Nathan B. Patterson,

Dr. T. E. Biery, John Bennett and Joseph I. Alexander met the distinguished party to this place. Aside from the feature of the day—the arrival of the Generals — Scottsbrug enjoyed one of the greatest political rallies n her history. It was soldiers' day. At 10 o'clock delegations began to arrive, and by noon large delegations with finely decorated wagons came in from New Harmony. Finley township and Little York, Holman. Goshen, Hardscrabble neighborhood and New Liberty. The delegations were headthe Scottsburg cornet band and paraded the principal streets until they were nearly blocked, and it became necessary to unload the wagons. The delegations were accompanied by martial bands and glee clubs, and the greatest enthusiasm pre-valled. By 1 o'clock this afternoon fully giee clubs, James S. Rutherford made a brief speech, closing with a high tribute to Hon. Theodore Shockney, of Union City, whom he introduced to the assemblage. As Mr. Shockney stepped to the front of the stage and began speaking he was given a with the Others. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Oct. 15 .- Thousands of people gathered at the City Park this afternoon to hear the famous "old generals," who arrived here at 5 o'clock. There were present on the special train Gen. O. O. Howard, T. I. Stewart, R. A. Alger, O. Marden, of Massachusetts, Corporal Tanner, Major W. Berst, of Illinois, and General Sickles and Chairman John K. Gowdy. General Sickles was ilt and unable to leave the car. the coterie left at 6 o'clock for Louisville, where they held a meeting to-night at Music Hall. All the veterans appealed to the patriotism of their hearers in their addresses, each of them speaking about five minutes. The financial question and the tariff were put in the background, and the effect was beneficial to the cause of Republicanism. The demonstrations of approval clearly showed that the audience was in sympathy with the speakers. The arrival of this interesting group so soon after the visit of Mr. Bryan showed that the feeling in this vicinity is very satisfactory for Republicans. The crowd was much larger than that which greeted Mr. Bryan. The appeal to patriotism will have a beneficial result, and Enthusiastic Meeting Addressed by Sickles, Howard and Tanner.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 15 .- The party of Union Generals, under General Alger, after winding up their tour of Indiana at Jeffersonville in the afternoon, addressed an enthusiastic meeting that crowded Music Hall, this city, to-night. Col. R. M. Kelly presided and Mayor Todd wescomed the visitors. Speeches were made by Gen-era's Sickles and Howard and Corporal Tanner.

The generals' party left to-night for a three days' tour of Ohio. F. C. Millikan, Thomas Hanna and Chairman Gowdy, of the Indiana Republican State committee left the party at Louisville, after having conducted it through their State. The In-diana programme was carried out with the greatest promptness and efficiency.

45,000 at Marion. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 15 .- There were as many people in the city of Marion yesterday as gathered at the depot to see the "generals." Conservative estimates place the number of people in the city at 45,600 during the day. The torchlight procession at night was a fitting climax to one of the grandest days this county has ever witnessed. The parade was a mile and a half long and took twenty minutes to pass a given point. William L. Taylor, of Indianapoils, James F. Stutesman, of Peru, and H. Z. Leonard, of Wabash, spoke to thoudifferent parts of the courthouse square. John S. Duncan, of Indianapolis, was to speak in the even-ing, but failed to arrive. There were over 1,800 torches in line last night.

Saloon Keeper Shot.

GALENA, Ill., Oct. 15.-At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon two men entered Chris Bauer's saloon, on Franklin street, and ordered the inmates to hold up their hands. the crowd in attendance was one of the largest of the campaign. The crowd was fatally shot. The robbers rifled the cash estimated from 4,000 to 7,000. Previous to drawer and then beat a retreat, exchanging a fusiliade with a pursuing party. They crossed the river from the business district livery wagon, threw the driver from his sent and escaped to the country in the vehicle. Sheriff Parker and a large posse are in pursuit.

OUTS WITH THE COMMITTEE.

Telegram Received from the Geor-That Caused a Sudden Change in Leaders' Plans.

HURRIED TRIP TO ATLANTA

BY BUTLER, WHO WAS SAID TO BE EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON.

Rumor that a Cabinet Position Has Been Promised the Arch Middle-Roader if He Will Withdraw.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CHICAGO, Oct. 15 .- The projected trip of the committee appointed by the Populist executive committee to call on Mr. Watson, It was said to-night, had been abandoned, Senator Butler, it was reported, left for Washington last night. Committeeman Reed, of Georgia, and George F. Washburn, chairman of the Western branch of the committee, who were to accompany Senator Butler to Georgia, are still in town and they said that no formal call would be made on Mr. Watson. A telegram was received from the Populist vice presidential at Seymour and accompanied the generals candidate to-day. Mr. Washburn stated that the trip was abandoned because It was absolutely necessary for Senator Butler to return to Washington at once. What the contents of the telegram are is causing considerable speculation, as it was understood last night that the committee intended to start unless word was heard from Watson to the contrary. It was learned from another source that Chairman Butler had gone to Washington by way of Watson's home. This evident attempt of the Populist leaders to keep the matter secret has caused much gossip. A dispatch from Atlanta, Ga., however, indicates that Mr. Watson expects the committee to visit him. The dispatch says: "The proposed conference between a subcommittee of the Populist national executive committee, headed by Senator Butler and Thomas Watson, Populist vice presidential nominee, is expected to develop a his two-hundredth speech in twenty-five dadressed the crowd upon the issues of the days in ten States to an audience of 800,- day, and although he expressed a desire for no cheering, the audidays in ten States to an audience of 800.- day, and although he expressed a common desire for no cheering, the audience of the committee will result in a formal There are numerous rumors of official positions to be tendered Mr. Watson in case he withdraws and the Democratic party is successful at the November elections. The stories of the promised position range all the way down from a cabinet portfolio, but no one claims to have definite information as to just what, if anything, will be promised. There is grave doubt expressed, however, that Mr. Watson will promise to withdraw. It is freely vice presidential candidate, and the committee's haste in notifying him of the intended visit is said to have been the result of a fear that he would take precipitate action before the conference could be held. That fear was set at rest, however, by a message which Mr. Watson sent to Chairman Washburn to-day, expressing willingness to see the committee. Mr. Watson, according to the rumor, allayed the fears of the Populist leaders by appending to his telegram the statement that he would await the coming of the subcommittee It is believed, from this, that the candidate's letter of acceptance will not be published until after the coming conference, although he was expected to have given it to the press to-night. What the outcome it is predicted that McKinley will carry this of the committee's visit will be is aitogether guess work, but there is a growing impression that Mr. Watson will take more kindly to the alleged suggestion of with-drawal than he would have done at an earlier date in the campaign. He is expected to leave Thomson for Atlanta as time the committee will arrive there. There Dectoring the Populist. ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 15 .- In view of the alarming reports in circulation concerning the condition of the Hon. Thomas E Watson, the Journal this morning telegraphed Mr. Watson's physician for an official statement of his patient's condition. To this the following reply has been received:

"TOM" WATSON'S CONDITION.

"The impression has been created by some papers that Mr. Thomas E. Watson has been and is now quite ill with throat and lung trouble, while another has so mis stated the facts and misrepresented Mr. Watson as to state that he was not sick at all, but pretending to be for some cause, that he was out looking after his different farms in the country, etc. In justice to Mr. Watson, I state that when he returned from his last speaking tour, his throat was in a fearful condition, it a mass of ulceration and his general system was beginning to be impressed by it, but it soon yielded to treatment, and he is now in his usual good health, except the local trouble in his throat, which is very much improved, and, I think, it will be entirely well in a few days. Yet I positively object to Mr. Wat-son's making any more speeches at pres-ent. E. S. HARRISON, M. D." Dr. Harrison sent the above statement to Mr Watson before delivering it to the getrespondent. Mr. Watson returned it with the following indorsement: "Dear Doctor-This is all right.-T. E.

GUILTY OF EXTORTION.

CANDIDATE WATSON EVIDENTLY AT Alleged Newspaper Man Convicted of "Bleeding" a Woman.

> CHICAGO, Oct. 15 .- J. H. Cummings, who is said to have been at one time a newspaper man in San Francisco and the East, was sentenced to ten days in the county jail on a charge of extortion to-day. Some years ago Miss Julia Adler kept company and corresponded with Harry Tillenburg. Tillenburg kept her letters and after Miss Adler's marriage to R. Barratti, a stock broker, Tillenburg is said to have shown the letters to Cummings. Both Tillenburg and Cummings were nearly penniless and a plan was entered on to extort money from Mrs. Earratti by means of the letters. The dates on them were changed to make them appear to have been written after her marriage. Then Cummings demanded $50 apiece for the letters, threatening to show them to Mrs. Barratti's husband in case of refusal. In this way $40 was secured, $10 at a time, Cummings giving the woman part of a letter in return. Finally Mrs. Barratti told her husband and the arrest of Cummings and Tillenburg followed. Tillenburg secured his release on ball and has not since been seen. He is said to be well connected in Chicago.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Oct. 15:-Today's session of the International Typographical Union was the most important that has been held since the convention opened four days ago. The business of the election of a president, vice president and secretary and treasurer were all hotly contested. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing term: President, W. P. Prescott, of Toronto, Ont., re-elected; secretary-treasurer, John W. Bramwood, of Denver; first vice president, Theodore Perry, of Nashville, Tenn.; second vice president, George W. Williams, of Boston; third vice president, Hugo Miller, of Indianapolis, re-elected. The following delegates to the American Federation of Labor, which meets in Cincinnati Dec. 8, were chosen: Edward Hirsch, of Baltimore; Daniel J. What they appeal to is the spirit of social unrest, the spirit of discontent. They seek to rally to their banners all the forces that make social disorder and national destruction. They bid for the support of the knaves who see their profit in social convulsion, hoping to find it, if they be demagogues, in the shape of high office; or if they are more vulgar wrong-doers, in the opportunities offered by a general relaxation of the laws. "It is both amusing and melancholy to see the straits to which the apostles of this doctrine are reduced the minute they, in any degree, endeavor to put it into practice. The present movement was started largely in agricultural communities, and, in order to appeal to those among the farmers who were discontented it was proposed to allow them to pay all their debts in money worth half what it is at present. As a matter of fact the bid which demonstized silver was before the two houses of Congress for over two years; it was printed thirteen different times and the proceedings in relation to it occupied nearly 150 pages of the Congressional Globe.
"Mr. Bryan is fond of denouncing not only those who lend to private individuals what these private individuals urgently need, but also those who, in the time of the Nation's need, loaned the Nation itself the money with which to carry on the national business. It is true that we had to pay altogether too high a rate of interest for some of the bonds which have been recently issued, but this was due more than any other cause to the fact that Mr. Bryan and his precious associates of the repudiation stamp by their antics made the loan dangerous. With a proper tariff and a proper financial system we would not have to borrow at all. Mr. Bryan and his associates then insisted and now insist that we ought to cheat the men who loaned money to the government out of half their loan. Just so long as there is a possibility of the American people possessing a sense of henor so blunted as to make man President so long they will have to pay a high price for their folly. THE VATICAN'S ATTITUDE. Mckinley Favored, but Ireland's Letter Disapproved.

LONDON, Oct. 16 .- The Daily News publishes the following dispatch from Rome: "The Vatican, although in favor of Mr. McKinley, disapproves of Archbishop Ireland's letter because it openly mixes religion and politics, which the Vatican desires to keep separate in the United States. It is feared that the letter will displease the Eastern and Southern Irish Bryanist Catholics. It is probable that instructions will be sent to Mgr. Martinelli (the papal delegate), concerning the attitude of the Catholic clergy."

> PALMER AND BUCKNER. Gold Democratic Candidates Speak at Birmingham. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 15.-Generals Palmer and Buckner, the candidates for the presidency and vice presidency of the National Democracy, reached here at 4 o'clock this morning, being escorted from Pulaski, Tenn., by a committee of gold Democrats from this city. A public reception was held | THE : KATHARINE : HOME : AUXILIARY in the pariors of the Morris Hotel by the candidates and their wives from 11 to 12 o'clock. It was largely attended, many old soldiers calling to pay their respects. At noon the candidates were escorted to the opera house, where they spoke. The building has a seating capacity of about two of available standing room was taken. Ladies occupied the boxes. The crowd was very demonstrative and enthusiastic. F. S. Ferguson, commander of Alabama Division of the United Confederate Veterans, presided and introduced the speakers. General Paimer opened by refuting the charge that he had been cruel to Southern people while commanding at Athens, Ga. He said he had never been there. He denied the statement that he had voted for the force bill. He was not in Congres, at the time, and one of his first votes when he got to the Senate was to vote for the repeal of the law. He also exploded the story that he denounced the Confederate flag us the rag of treason. He then launched into a discussion of the issues of the campaign. General Buckner followed him. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 15 .- The theater, with a seating capacity of 1,500 people, was packed to-night with a magnificent audience to greet the distinguished visitors, Generals Palmer and Buckner. Great enthusiasm prevailed. It is estimated that 2,000 people crowded into the building. A large number of ladies were present. General Palmer spoke nearly an hour and devoted his argument to the currency question almost exclusively, while General Buckner dis-sected the Chicago platform. Ex-Governor Jones after awhile go up a little, but they would go up very slowly and never as high as prices. Mr. Bryan says that the gold dollar has grown too fat; let him remember that if the workingman can only earn a lean dollar he can only buy a lean loaf. Many of the arguments of our foes are difficult to meet, simply because they are so absurd that it is hard to speak patiently about them. One of these is the talk about leaving to-morrow morning for Mobile, making speeches en route at Greenville, Evergreen and Brewton.

They Attempt to Force Contributions from Federal Employes. NEW YORK, Oct. 15 .- The World to-morrow will publish the following: Upon reaching his office yesterday morning Collector Kilbreth was informed that all clerks in his department had received circulars, signed by James C. Truman, which, after a lengthy appeal for funds in the interest of the Democratic party, requests that contributions be sent to Democratic headquarters or to Elliot Danforth, chairman of the finance committee, New York city. Collector Kilbreth at once stopped the distribution of the mail and sent for Col. Dudley F. Phelps, chief of the law division. Both stated that the sending of the circulars was a flagrant violation of the law, but it was decided to report the matter to the Attorney-general before causing the arrest of the senders of the circular. senders of the circular.

Collector Kilbreth said: "Proper action will be taken as soon as it is practicable. This is the first time in my experience here that such an attempt has been made to get subscriptions out of my clerks. It is prohibited by Section 12 of the civil-service law, the penalty for violation of which is a fine not exceeding $6,000 or imprisonment for three years, or beat. ment for three years, or both."

Col. Dudley Phelps said: "The government will certainly strictly enforce the statutes."

the civil service, with the restoration of the spoils system. No new legislation is necessary to accomplish this result. The mere election of a President who will modthe civil-service rules in accordance with these principles will restore the spoils system as it existed during the worst period of our political history, with its cylls greatly multiplied, owing to the growth and omplexity of the government service.' The address praises the civil service, and concludes: "The merit system—the product of a generation of progress—will, if the principles of the Chicago platform be en-forced, be destroyed at a single blow, the business of the government will be thrown back to its chaos, the cost of its maintenance will be increased by many million and the 'spoils system,' one of the greatest perils which has menaced our government since the civil war, will again threaten the integrity and permanency of our institu-tions.
